

Lisa E. Maier, MD

Position Nominated for:

Board of Director

Present Academic and/or Clinical Affiliations:

Clinical Professor, University of Washington

Medical School:

University of Michigan; 2002

Residency Program:

University of Michigan; 2006

Board Certification:

Dermatology, expires 2026

ACDS Activities:

ACDS AMA and Health Policy Committee, 2020-2023

American Contact Dermatitis Society, Nominations Committee, member 2014-2016

American Contact Dermatitis Society Scholarship (mentor Dr. Howard Maibach), 2008

Other national, state and local dermatology/professional societies:

American Academy of Dermatology, Fellow

Association of Professors of Dermatology, member

Washington State Dermatologic Society, member

Friends of the ACDS group, member

Association of Professors of Dermatology, Communications Committee, 2013-2016

American Academy of Dermatology RosaceaNet Workgroup, 2011

Michigan Dermatological Society (MDS) Meeting Planning Committee, 2012-2015

University of Michigan Medical School Academy of Medical Educators, 2013-2016

Medical Society, government or professional appointments, awards and honors:

University of Michigan League of Educational Excellence Award, 2013

William B. Taylor Resident Teaching Award, University of Michigan Dermatology, 2014

Alpha Omega Alpha, 2002

Candidate Statement:

Caring for patients with contact dermatitis is the most rewarding part of my career. Over the last five years, I've directed the Contact Dermatitis Clinic at the University of Washington. In addition to caring for complex dermatitis patients, my focus has been on resident education -- teaching not only the science, but the joy of patch testing. As a board member, I hope to promote physician education about patch testing and help attract an enthusiastic next generation of patch testers.

