

Margaret Hammond, MD

Position Nominated for:

Board of Director

Present Academic and/or Clinical Affiliations:

Intermountain Healthcare - Utah Valley Clinic Dermatology

Medical School:

Case Western Reserve University; 2017

Residency Program:

University Hospitals/Case Western Reserve University; 2021

Board Certification:

American Board of Dermatology, expires 2031

ACDS Activities:

Fall Meeting Planning Committee, 2023

ACDS Fisher Resident Award for best oral presentation, 2016

Other national, state and local dermatology/professional societies:

Utah Dermatology Society, President Elect 2022-2026

Utah Medical Association House of Delegates, Delegate 2022

Medical Society, government or professional appointments, awards and honors:

British Society of Investigative Dermatology Best Presentation by a Clinical Trainee, 2019

Willard A. Bernbaum Award for Outstanding Performance as a Medicine Resident, 2018

Utah Lieutenant Governor's State Youth Volunteer Award, 2010

Candidate Statement:

As an early career physician conducting patch testing outside of an academic setting, I feel I would bring a unique perspective to the ACDS Board of Directors. I have found fulfillment participating with ACDS, most recently as a member of the 2023 ACDS Fall Meeting planning committee. Serving on the Board of Directors would be a great opportunity to continue to do so.

