Sponsorship Opportunities / Event Information

Platinum Level $10,000

Engage with meeting attendees in a pre- or post-event sponsored session. This 25-minute virtual session will be formatted to include sponsor's choice of content.

*No CME offered for sponsored session.

The American Contact Dermatitis Society's mission is to be the premier organization cultivating advancements in the diagnosis and care of dermatitis through the promotion of education, research, and advocacy. Our society is dedicated to understanding, and investigating the interplay among, contact, occupational, atopic, photo, drug and other forms of dermatitis.

The ACDS will host the 2021 Fall Meeting in a virtual format. Programming will be offered as a half-day event which will focus on live streamed presentations most pertinent to the ACDS membership. All content will be available for on-demand viewing through the end of 2021.

We invite you to participate in one of our below sponsorship opportunities which will allow you to bring your products to the attention of over 200 physicians and specialists from all over the world in the field of contact and atopic dermatitis and occupational dermatology.
